

FRIENDSHIP & LOVE SURVEY

Let us know how you feel about friendship and love. Complete this survey by selecting the answer(s) you feel to be most accurate. You may check more than one box per question and write in your own answer(s) where applicable.

The most important quality in a friendship is:

- Honesty
- Loyalty
- Trustworthiness
- A sense of humor/wit
- Intelligence (Emotional/Intellectual)
- Compassion
- Adventurous
- Flexibility/Adaptability
- Reliable/Steadfast
- Generosity
- Humility
- Creative/Imaginative
- _____

 If ranking the above traits is easier/preferable, write a number next to each trait in order of importance from 1 – 12 (or 13 if you choose to write-in an additional trait).*

The most important quality in love is:

- The same as in friendship
- The same as in friendship plus a baseline physical attraction
- Different than friendship
- Different than friendship plus a baseline physical attraction

If different than friendship (with or without the physical attraction), how so and why? For example, perhaps the order of importance of the traits you identified for friendship changes for love. Or maybe you feel that there are additional traits important to love beyond those important to friendship (e.g., courage/bravery, fiscal responsibility).*

Can you have love without friendship?

- Yes
- Yes, but only when it comes to family
- No

Can you have a friendship with something other than a human being (e.g., a cat, a tree, ideas)?

- Yes
- Yes, but the nature of that friendship would be different
- No

If no, why not?*

Think of a friendship in your past or present. Pick a moment that stands out. What makes that event memorable for you?

Is there anything about friendship or love not mentioned here that you would like to mention?

We will post the results of our survey on our Facebook page once all responses are compiled. All information will be anonymous. Please let us know if you are comfortable with us including your anonymous replies by checking a box below.
